

Paul Lindemans

Remembrance Feb 3th 2009 – the Day he left our world

THIS IS A TRIBUTE TO OUR FRIEND PAUL

This is an Invitation to all who were close to Paul and like to see this Presentation as a real Commemoration of who Paul was, who he still is for us, what he means for us, what he left us to Memories

So : feel free to add text, photos, lyrics, . . . to this presentation and forward to the same group and people I forgot to invite with this Invitation.

So I start with some topics I remember Paul the most : his laugh, his optimistic mind, his cooking ambitions, his Bonnie and music, our friendship, our joy for Life, ...

*And maybe, where ever he may be outside of our World,
I'm sure he will smile and thinking of us ...*

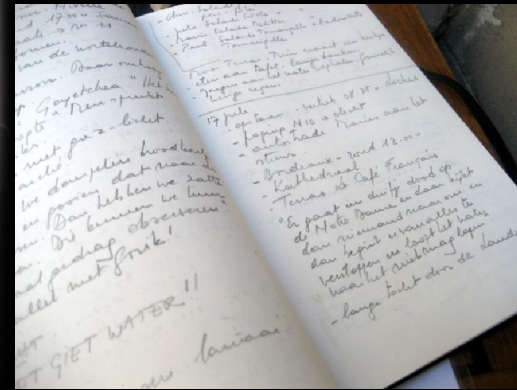

He could laugh like no other ...

He really enjoyed Cooking like no other ...

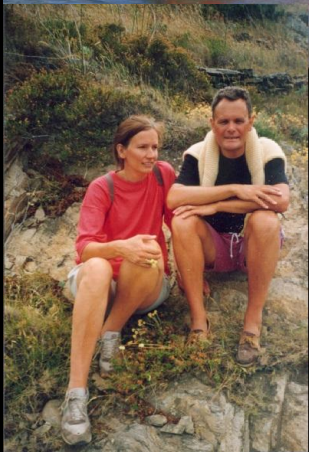

He enjoyed his Music World (and his Bonnie) like no other ...

He adored his Family like no other ...

He loved to travel and enjoy Life like no other ...

He really loved living like no other ...

*Already five (5) years ago
he left us ... a fairy tale tells us
where we can find Paul again.*

It's now up to you to complete ...
